

Real Life...Teen Choices Educator Position

Real Life... Teen Choices is one of three main programs within the Family & Youth Initiatives organization. The Real Life...Teen Choices program uses the A&M curriculum by Scott Phelps to teach middle and high school students in a school setting about sexual risk avoidance, STDs, teen pregnancy, pornography, internet safety, dating violence, consent, and healthy coping skills in a holistic comprehensive approach.

FYI seeks a highly motivated, energetic, outgoing person who is willing to teach sensitive material to middle and high school students. Expectations include; present the curriculum in a fun, interactive, engaging manner while maintaining professionalism and medical accuracy. Possess organizational skills, complete administrative tasks, exercise great communication skills, and follow-through. Hours vary from week to week. Qualified applicants must have experience in public speaking, pass a background check, and have a working knowledge of Microsoft and Google applications. Flexibility and commitment to the mission are a must!